

1979 WL 42897 (S.C.A.G.)

Office of the Attorney General

State of South Carolina

April 2, 1979

1 Honorable Wade R. Crow
Member
House of Representatives
State House
Columbia, South Carolina 29201

Dear Representative Crow:

In response to your request for an opinion from this Office as to whether or not local legislation relating to school matters is constitutional in view of the ‘no laws for a specific county’ language of Section 7 of Article VIII of the South Carolina Constitution of 1895, as amended, the South Carolina Supreme Court has held that such legislation is permissible because ‘public education is not the duty of the counties, but of the General Assembly.’ Moye v. Caughman, 265 S.C. 140 at 143, 217 S.E.2d 36 (1975).

With kind regards,

Karen LeCarft Henderson
Senior Assistant Attorney General
